OLD BUSINESS

Committee Reports:

Ushers – Nothing to report.

Lectors/Servers/EMEs – Angie reported that this is a commissioning year for the Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist. She and Bill will conduct four “update” sessions – attendance is mandatory in order to be commissioned in the fall. Angie also reported that she trained two more servers. There are currently no new lectors or EMEs to be trained.

As a side to the committee reports, the committee had a small discussion regarding a dress code for servers, EMEs, and lectors. The committee is in agreement that they will support a dress code if one is determined.

Monday Morning Sessions – Fran reported that she, Barb Riley, Lynne Lukach, and Patsy Saul meet on Monday mornings at noon to select the songs for the weekend liturgies. If anyone on the committee is interested in joining this group, please let Fran know.

Bulletin Blurbs – There is a question as to whether we should continue to submit these. With the upcoming conversion to the new Roman Missal, it was decided that in the fall, these blurbs could reflect some of the upcoming changes. They should start with “Did you know...”.

Feedback on the Centennial Weekend – There will be several DVDs available from some of the choir performances. John and Lisa mentioned there were issues with seating for the Mass. John said he tried to do his best finding seats for people. Lisa reported that some parents of the children's choir were upset that seats had not been reserved for them. We had too many reserved seats, and not enough pews for open seating. Regina congratulated Bill and Sr. Paula on the wonderful effort they put in to making the weekend a tremendous success. She also commented on the lovely quilted banners, and volunteered to send Kathy Wukela a thank you note for stepping up and chairing the sub-committee that made banners. We also commented on the lovely handmade stoles that the priests wore, and Fran mentioned that the priests were very appreciative for these gifts.

Feedback on Pentecost – All of the readers did a wonderful job, and we enjoyed seeing them dressed in native apparel. Fran said that she found three more volunteers for next year. John mentioned that it would be nice and helpful to announce the languages that will be heard prior to each Mass. The committee agreed to do this for next year.

Thank you for flowers – Lisa reported that she sent a $50 gift card to Olive Garden/Red Lobster and a thank you note to Justin Marotta for the Easter flowers. Jean volunteered to write a thank you for the bulletin.

OPEN

Fran reported that she was asked to make a presentation to the Pastoral Council on the duties of our committee. She said that she told them about the history of the committee, and the accomplishments we've made over the years. She mentioned that there were some who may be interested in joining our committee when their term is up on council.

Fran asked if everyone was on board for next year, and we all agreed we would continue on the committee. She also said that we should think about a retreat for our group maybe in the fall or the spring. In addition, please contact Fran if you know of anyone wishing to join our committee.

We adjourned the meeting with the recitation of the Lord's Prayer.
